WHERE THE CLIENT IS KING

Born and raised in Washington Heights, Rosemarie Arnold fought her way to the top of her trade. Named repeatedly to best lawyer lists and known as "A Courtroom Bulldog Who Won't Be Leashed," Certified Civil Trial Attorney Arnold has been a staple on the New Jersey Super Lawyers list every year since its inception in 2005.

Now, less than two years after opening her personal injury boutique on 53rd and 3rd, Arnold's massive success in New York has landed her on the New York Super Lawyers list too. Winning headline-making cases—such as nearly $9 million for a teenager injured in an automobile accident, $3 million for a child who cut her eye on a defective store display or $1 million for a Bronx woman mowed down by a city bus—has earned

Arnold the admiration of judges, clients and fellow lawyers. Chris London, a well-known attorney and former client of Arnold's, called her a "brilliant trial lawyer ... who is the irreplaceable equivalent of having Socrates, Clarence Darrow and Mother Teresa in a suit. Yes, she is that good."

London's sentiments are not unique. Arnold's waiting room walls are covered with hundreds of thank you notes from grateful clients, judges and adversaries who praise her hard work, dedication, aggressiveness, courage, brilliance and results. Rosemarie Arnold is the ultimate advocate.
